

Communications with Economists: Current and Future Trends

Conference Program

Note: all presentations will remain on the website after their first broadcast

Wednesday, November 16th

9am GMT

Keynote address

Laboratory experiments: Topics of study, 2001 - 2010, Prof. Charles Noussair (Tilburg)

Virtual Issue on Experimental Economics released

12pm GMT

Papers

Designing Economics Instruments for the Environment in a Decentralised Fiscal System, James Alm

Classifying Monetary Economics: Fields and Methods from Past to Future, Alexander Mihailov

2pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

Experimental Economics, Dr. Steve Tucker (Canterbury)

5pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

Why Write a Review Paper? And how to do it!, Professor Mike Bradshaw, University of Leicester

Thursday, November 17th

9am GMT

Keynote address:

Current & Future Trends in Meta- Analysis, Prof. Tom Stanley (Hendrix)

Virtual Issue on Meta-Analysis released

12pm GMT

Conference Papers

Happiness Economics from 35,000 feet, George MacKerron

What's to know? Puzzles in the literature on the value of statistical life, Kip Viscusi

2pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

From publication to Impact: Using Google Scholar and Publish or Perish to measure research impact, Prof. Anne-Wil Harzing (Melbourne)

5pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

How to Survive the Review Process, Dr. Greg Maney, Hofstra University

Friday, November 18th

9am GMT

Keynote address:

Current & Future Trends in Econometrics, David Hendry (Oxford)

Virtual Issue on Econometrics released

12pm GMT

Conference Paper

Models of Regional Growth: Past, Present and Future, Richard Harris

2pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

Bibliometrics / Rankometrics, Prof. Les Oxley (Canterbury)

5pm GMT

Publishing Workshop

The Future of Publishing, Philip Carpenter, Social Sciences and Humanities Managing Director, Wiley-Blackwell

FINAL